WHAT INVESTMENT SERVICES AND ADVICE CAN YOU PROVIDE ME?

TCM offers investment advisory services to retail investors. These services include advice about exchange traded funds; stocks; bonds; money market funds; third-party money managers; and sub-advisors.

Our firm offers the following types of advisory services: financial planning, investment management, separately managed accounts, selection and oversight of sub-advisors. Our investment management services include ongoing monitoring of your investment portfolio as part of our regular services.

TCM's standard investment management services include managing your account(s) with discretionary authority. This means we are authorized by you to make investment recommendations for your account(s) and will buy and sell the securities we recommend to you with your funds for your account(s) without asking you in advance. TCM currently provides its investment management services for its clients under discretionary authority.

Alternatively, TCM can manage your account(s) without discretion. This means we would make investment recommendations for your account(s) to buy and sell securities. However, we could not act on those recommendations without obtaining your authority to execute securities' trades in your account(s). Under a non-discretionary model, you as the investor decide whether to buy or sell securities recommended to you.

TCM does not limit its recommendations and services to proprietary products or specific types of securities. The firm does not require an account minimum or have any requirements for retail clients to engage our services.

For more detailed information about our services, refer to our Form ADV 2A.

QUESTIONS YOU SHOULD ASK THE FINANCIAL PROFESSIONAL

- Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not?
- How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

WHAT FEES WILL I PAY?

Description of Principal Fees and Costs

For investment management services, TCM charges an asset under management fee. The fee TCM charges for financial planning is negotiable.

Since we are an investment adviser which charges an asset-based fee, the more assets there are in a retail investor's advisory account, the more a retail investor will pay TCM in fees. TCM therefore has an incentive to encourage you to increase the assets in your account.

Description of Other Fees and Costs

Other fees charged to you that relate to your account are fees paid to a custodian and sub-adviser as well as other transactional fees and product-level fees. These fees can include brokerage commissions, transaction fees, custodial fees, wire transfer and electronic fund processing fees. Investment management fees, sub-advisory fees, and administrative fees can be charged by mutual funds and exchange traded funds in your investment portfolio.

Additional Information

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

The fees for investment advisory services are described in further detail in our Form ADV 2A, in particular, Items 5.A., B., C., and D.

QUESTIONS YOU SHOULD ASK THE FINANCIAL PROFESSIONAL

- Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

WHAT ARE YOUR LEGAL OBLIGATIONS TO ME WHEN ACTING AS MY INVESTMENT ADVISER? HOW ELSE DOES YOUR FIRM MAKE MONEY AND WHAT CONFLICTS OF INTEREST DO YOU HAVE?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means.

TCM is affiliated with two insurance agencies, Thrive Insurance Group ("TIG") and Thrive Financial Services ("TFS"). TCM's financial professionals are licensed insurance agents of TIG and TFS. These insurance agencies and its insurance agents make money when clients purchase insurance products from them.

It will benefit TCM to recommend that clients increase the assets in their accounts and make IRA rollovers from 401(k) plans to accounts managed by TCM. The more assets a TCM client's advisory account holds, the more TCM and its financial professionals are paid in fees. TCM has an incentive to encourage a client to increase the assets in his or her account with the firm. For more detailed information regarding conflicts of interest, please see our Form ADV 2A.

QUESTIONS YOU SHOULD ASK THE FINANCIAL PROFESSIONAL

- How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

HOW DO YOUR FINANCIAL PROFESSIONALS MAKE MONEY?

At TCM, financial professionals are paid a salary and benefits along with a percentage of assets under his/her management. Financial professionals earn extra compensation for starting a new client relationship at TCM. How much a financial professional is paid is based on the assets under his/her management.

Our financial professionals are also licensed insurance agents. They receive compensation from their sales of insurance products to clients. Our financial professionals do not receive any other type of payment from our firm except for compensation from TIG, TFS and TCM which is derived from the intake of fees from their clients.

A financial professional could have too many relationships to service them in accordance with TCM's fiduciary duty to client. To mitigate that conflict, TCM manages its financial professionals' workloads to ensure that our clients receive service in accordance with TCM's fiduciary duty to our clients.
